WHO WE ARE

The Murer House Foundation is a 501 (c) 3 non-profit organization comprised of volunteers. Since 1998, we have raised over $180,000 to preserve and maintain the historic Murer House and gardens. The Board of Directors and our enthusiastic volunteers work tirelessly to continue this purpose, offer educational opportunities and share Italian heritage with the local region.

PURPOSE

The Murer House Foundation formed in 1998 to maintain and preserve the historic Giuseppe Murer residence, garage (now our museum), workshop and gardens. We offer classes in Italian language and cooking and hold annual events to raise funds and share Folsom's Italian heritage. Typically we have over 1,500 visitors for tours, classes and events and provide volunteer opportunities to local high school students.
